The Fruits of the Spirit

The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kind-ness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Galatians 5: 22- 23

Surprising One, coming in ways I least expect, open me to your dynamic presence.

Awaken me, Surprising One!

Perspective guide, always available to direct my ways, advise me in self-discipline and decision -making.

Awaken me, Perspective Guide!

Freedom bringer, asking for my willingness to surrender, help me to let go, to let in, to let be.

Awaken me, Freedom Bringer!

Source of power, providing stamina and strength for my soul, support me when I am weak and vulnerable.

Awaken me, Source of Power!

Arousing One, stirring up what is dead or stale, urge my stagnant sleeping gifts into life.

Awaken me, Arousing One!

Divine transformer, encouraging continued growth, grant me both patience and acceptance.

Awaken me, Divine Transformer!

Peacemaker, offering forgiveness and understanding, encourage me to communicate with love.

Awaken me, Peacemaker!

Bearer of love, never ending font of charity and compassion, may I share my goodness generously.

Lost Lace

Invites you to

'Share your story of loss'

The Lost Lace project invites the families of those who died from covid 19 in Ireland and Northern Ireland to share their story of loss with the Lost Lace project – a visual art and poetry commemoration to the lives lost to covid 19.

You can share a few words about your loved one on 'Share your story of loss' on <http://www.lostlace.com> until 31st August 2022.

The words of loss that are shared on the website will provide inspiration for the poet Jessica Traynor to compose four poems to commemorate the lives of loved ones who have died from covid 19 in Ireland and Northern Ireland. The recital of the poems and the launch of the outdoor installation visual artist Miriam Mc Connon will take place in October 2022 at Iveagh Gardens, Dublin
